

October 30, 2007

STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR HALEY BARBOUR
ON THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT'S RULING
IN THE EARL WESLEY BERRY CASE

The United States Supreme Court's ruling is extremely disappointing. The real inhumanity in this case is that the life of an innocent woman, Mary Bounds of Houston, Mississippi, was taken 20 years ago, and now justice has been delayed again. My thoughts and prayers continue to be with her family and friends who are suffering through this injustice.

#